

We allow media companies to use the airwaves in exchange for their assurance that they are serving the public interest. It is the FCC's job to make sure that they do. I oppose media deregulation.